ZEI MASTER

Final Ceremony of the Master of European Studies Class of 2013 with the President of the European Parliament Martin Schulz

In his keynote speech, President Schulz discussed his concern about the shrinking support of citizens for the EU. More and more people, the President of the European Parliament said, abandoned their commitment for Europe: "The EU, in my eyes, is threatened.". Closer cooperation across borders as well as strong common institutions are essential.

EUROPEAN GOVERNANCE AND REGULATION

New ZEI Research Project on "The Future of the European Union"

ZEI has launched a new research project on "The Future of the European Union". The project focuses on the European Union's political and legal ability to resolve the currently burning problems of the EU. Basis of this project is the understanding of the EU as a system in which processes of governing and regulating are performed within a multi-level structure. The website of the project offers an enormous amount of useful information on the current transformation process. Furthermore, ZEI publishes the "Future of Europe Observer" in this framework.

ZEI Discussion Paper C 217/2013

Desislava Kraveva

Free movement of workers in the EU. Legal aspects of the transitional arrangements

The Discussion Paper is an examination of the use and effects of transitional periods during the process of enlargement. In order to understand the reasoning behind their usage, the background and history of three selected enlargements, the Mediterranean enlargement in the 1980's and the two Eastern enlargements in 2004 and 2007 is explored.
